Slash 007 – Ahmet Sisman – Miami Bass Machine / Move Remixes by Daze Maxim, Digitaline & Pherox

Release Date 20.04.10 (first 2 weeks only vinyl)
Cat# SLASH007
Format Vinyl 12", Digital

After the first remix EP (Slash05) we are ready for the next package of brilliant reinterpretations of the badass moving Miami Bass Machine (Slash04) from Mister Ahmet Sisman. This time Daze Maxim, Digitaline and label co-owner Pherox have the honor to give their own shape and understanding of crossover-modern dance music.

The first track on the A-Side begins with a smasher from Tim Querengaesser aka Pherox combining both tracks on the EP with a lot of hi-tech soul and funk. The Re-Edit of Pherox's Miami Move Machine is smooth, sexy and purely intense ... what else could it be anyway?!? It's a magnet for the female beauties out there, 100% proved!!!

His majesty Gregory and Laurent alias Digitaline (Cadenza, Cityfox) are presenting us exactly what they are known for. The A2-Side of the fabulous Move Remix is a super precise produced dancefloor bomb loaded with melodic highlights in a very sophisticated way. An incomparable combination of functionality and individual club-sound skills make this remix truly adorable. We love it, and you will do it too!

The whole B-Side belongs to the master of never ending grooves and shapes in form of Daze Maxim (Hello? Repeat, Musique Risquee). Daze's approach is very simple but unique, creating a mood and vision of timeless dance music which has definitely his own characteristic trademark, and we are digging for it from the first moment! Music for the heat of the night with no compromises. So no need to wait, let the dance ceremony begin!!!
